W. C. T. U. COLUMN

Devoted to the Interest of Christian and Temperance Work, Under the Supervision of Francis WillardW. C. T. U. and Directed by Mrs. Dr. Dugan, to Whom all Communications for this Column Should be Sent.

beach of Indianapolis, in a recently der the guise of police regulation, Evasville, Wis. She says: "Evans. delivered opinion declared that the looking to the preservation of public State had no right for a fee to morals, had no right to license the make the saloon business legal. His saloons. Likewise, he argued citiarguments runs as follows: "If the zenship carried with it no right to town has grown steadily in popula-State can refuse to legalize gambling |seli liquor.

See Him! See HisPatients

Then, if you are not satisfled, don't take Treatment.

FORMERLY OF CHICAGO, NOW SULTATION IN ENGLISH, FRENCH

Hotel Donavin. BUCYRUS, Saturday, March 9 Hotel Deal.

Dr. Mahon is a graduate of the Rush Medical Conege, New York City, Army of the Republic when I prothe most notable infiltution in the test against the prostitution of that world. He has made a special study precious, almost holy name of "canof the diseases of the eye, ear, nose teen.' It is infamous to use it in tbroat and chronic diseases in the the sense of "saloon" or "dram shop" great hospitals of the country, and How can we old fellows who went diers' club and places of recreation the result of the experience are through the Civil war sober, sing having been destroyed is utterly mis. many phenomenal cures over the with pride at our reunion and camp lading.—The Union Signal of Feb. He successfully treats ACCTE AND CHRONIC CATARRH canteen, if we are liable to be un-Ringing in the Ears, Deafness, Dis. derstood as patronizing the same eases of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs. doggery? If this disgraceful and detention from work. YOUNG AND MIDDLE AGED MEN Suffering from Spermatorrhea and that have come from those who dep-Impotency, as the result of self abuse lore the application of a good word in youth or excess in mature years to unholy use. But the wrd "sa. and other causes producing some of loon, also, had nothing of disrepute the following effects, as emission, in its original meaning. It is the blotches, debility, nervousness, diz-drink that has debased the word. ziness, derective memory and sexu- The selling place of drink attempted ual exhaustion, which unfit the vic- to spread a glamor of respectability tim for business or marriage, are over its evil-doing by appropriating permanently cured by remedles not to itself a good name; but the sainjurious. His European treatment icon was not elevated; instead, the cures where others fail.

BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES.

Disease of Women such as leucorrhea, painful menstruation, dis- 1907. placement of womb, bearing down pains in back, relieved in a short instruments and comes prepared to room where the Thaw murder trial examine the most obscure medical is in progress, and deeply though we and surgical cases.

He undertakes no incurable diseases

Consultation Free and Confidential. Correspondence Solicited.

DR. MAHON 119 Winthrop Street OHIO. Feb. 14, 1907.

TOLEDO

prize fighting, and other evils, it "Can the legislature," he asks, has no right to license the saloon "legalize the destruction of the business. What is wrong can not be public health and morals? Can it lawful. Does the saloon business jeopardize the public safety? Can'the there are no very poor people. Bus. stand upon the same basis as that legislature make lawful for a price of the merchant or the farmer, In that which is unlawful? Certainly other words, is it one of the inher- not. If gambling is illegal, certainent common law rights of a citizen ly the galoon business is much more to engage in the liquor traffic?

After citing several cases, the ci States has held that the saloon Judge proceeds: "The quintessence business is the greatest source of of all these holdings is that, when crime and misery that here is in measured by the common law, the any State. In the face of such a saloon business is unlawful, and declaration, this court maintains therefore, without a legal existence, that in legalizing the salcon business and in the absence of a tatule le- the State assumes the right to break galizing the business, common law up homes, produce mur-lerers, luna. tics, and idiots and fill the peniten-

> Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, National and State president of the W. C. T. U., spoke ca behalf of the women at Augusta, Maine, Feb. 14, 1907, where she attended the legislative hearings. She received enthuslastic cheers as she rose to at. cress the committee.

> Every white ribboner will thrill with pride as she reads the magnificent address delivered by our Nat. ional President before the Maine legislature in defense of the prohibt. tory law. "On the firing line," fitly characterizes the unswerving attitude of our dauntless leader, who is in the forefront of every battle GRATIFYING RECOGNITION. A recent editorial in the Boston Traveler, rehearsing "The Events of 1906," honorably lists the World's W. C. T. U. Convention that "brought thirty thousand women from all parts of the world to Bos. ton." And the January issue of The World today presents to its readers in a group of portraits of "Protectors of the Public" a handsome full page portrait of our National Presi-L.T. Mahon, M. D. leader in woman's fight for the home."

LEDO, TO VISIT MARION CON- first sent out on its mission of heralding the unpopular cause; to AND GERMAN, AND EXAMINAthe days when church doors were closed to any and all pleaders for the home, including Frances Willard very little publicity to the benefit At MARION, Thurs., March 7

European Hotel

Line home, including Frances Willard herself; and, placing the picture beside that of recent scenes in Boston we not only take courage but are moving hear from the canteen. Con.

The home, including Frances Willard herself; and, placing the picture beside that of recent scenes in Boston we not only take courage but are moving hear from the canteen. Con.

The home, including Frances Willard herself; and, placing the picture beside that of recent scenes in Boston we not only take courage but are moving hear from the canteen. Con. way that lies before.-From the Union Signal of Feb. 21, 1907.

PROSTITUTING A GOOD WORD. As, an old soldier, I am sure I rooms. Every army post of any prevoice the sentiments of the Grand fire, "We drank from the same Kidney, Urinary and Bladder, Dia- immoral institution ever gets back etle may be worth to you more than betes Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheu- into the army, which God forbid, $100 if you have a child who soils matism and Paralysis, Epilepsy et let it go in under the name that has become infamous because of its HEMORRHOIDS (PILES) cured character, "saloon," and not try to alike. It arrests the troubel at once. without the knife. No pain and no divert attention from its infaamv by calling it a "canteen."

This is one of the many protests good word was made evil. a word may be "precious and almost As Syphilis, Scrofula, Stricture hely," but nothing is too precious or Gleet, etc., cured by never failing too holy to become altogether vile when strong drink lays hold upon it .- The Union Signal of Feb. 21,

ONE GLASS OF WINE. Revolting, indeed, as are the de-The Doctor earries all his portable talls recited in the New York courtdeprecate the publication of such sensationalism and the consequent influence upon readers young and old, it is to be hoped not all will but cures hundreds given up to die. miss the lesson that upon one glass of wine the fearful story hinges. If the beautiful girl whose husband

An aggregate of over 250 bills reluting to the liquor traffic has been introduced in thirty. Five different state legislatures since January 1.

—The Union Signal of Feb. 21,

Five thousand barrels of bonded whisky were consumed by fire at Newport, Ky., last week. Loss nothing. _St. Louis Advocate.

One of our correspondents, Mrs. THE STATE AND THE SALOON prohibition prevails." The jurist G. S. Bradley, sends us an interest Judge Artman, of the Circuit contended that the State, even un. lng note concerning the town of ville has been incorporated for 87 years and never a saloon has been allowed in the corporation. The tion, the residences are fine, nearly all workingmen owning their homes the busines; streets would do credit to a city three times its size, and iness men when asked the reason for these things, say, "Because we have never had a salcon [-The Union Signal of Feb. 21, 1907, > PRO-CANTEEN MOVEMENTS (Mrs. Clinton Smith President District of Columbia W.

C. T. U. Isa. 30, 15. In quietness and confidence shall your strength be. Despite the many rumors to the contrary, I vio not consider that the Anti-Canteen law is in jeopardy. tiaries jalls and asylums."—Western Six years ago it was passed by Con-Christian Advocate. houstive debate that rang through pulpit, platform and press. Its triumph was complete and unassail. able. A Senator or Congressman will now and then introduce a bill into Congress for its repeal. But no such measure ever came vote, and is no! hiely to. Year, by year the wisdom of this pleasure is shown as the health and morality of our army increases. No weapon formed against it has prospered. For instance, in the winter of 1904 the women of the Army and Navy League of this city made a movement which was sustained by officers of the army and became popular as the newspapers gave it for righteous government.—The hotoriety with such headines as these: "A battle royal over the restoration of the Army Canteen is now on between the women of the Army and Navy League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of America. Interesting developments are looked for." Another "Women Fighting Face to Face." But this agitation soon died out. Two consecutive winters Miss

Phoebe Cousins has come to Wash. ington, holding receptions and announcing that she intended to stay until Congress repealed the law. She was ably supported by the army officers. Nothing has come of this. The present movement started by PERMANENTLY LOCATED IN TO the Woman's Temperance Union was the Woman's Army Canteen Club the Spanish War Veterans which has which is extensively reported by the press, will prohably be as evan-escent as the rest. gress made appropriations aggregating more than $1,800,000 to be used in building at army posts handsome structures to contain gymnasiums amusement halls, reading and lunch tensions has these buildings, and their advantages are highly apprethe beer canteen. Therefore, the 14, 1907.

$100-Dr. E. Detchon's Anti-Dieurbedding from incontinence of water during sleep. Cures old and young $1. Sold by Flocken Drug Co.

A STATEMENT

In reply to Mr. Schwickendick's letter of February 16, which was half untrue, I wish the people of Marion to know the straight of it. And now I have published just what was said.

I went over on Cottage street on little business and passed Schwiekendick's house and they were all out and we got to talking Mr. Schwieendick or anyone else last bid was $25, and he knew at of the missing swine.. I offered who would find the missing hog, the same time I thought the hog $5.00 and he got me to describe the hog and asked if there were any marks on her. After I' described the hog he said, "Mrs. Berry, maybe I've got your hog, and if I've said. I've got her you can have her." There was a man sitting in his carriage and the man called, "John, come here," and they began whis-pering, but I don't know what was more to say in my presence." and asked my sister if any one fortunate enough to get Mystle Cure told Mrs. Berry which way the for Rheumatism. This cured me hog went. He said, "The reason after doctor's prescriptions had failed I ask it is that it will help me to have any effect. I have also heard that one fatal glass of polsoned champagne would never have passed her lips.—The Union Signal of Feb. 14, 1907.

The time the day of Mr. Holland's used it.

Sold by the Dumble Pharmacy, opposite that's your hog?'' and I in reply said, "It's her or a twin sistent."

MARION FAMILY THEATER Manager Vail of the Marion Camily Theatre has secured an-

TOKIO MURATI The Jap Juggler at the Marion Family Theatre.

night.

funny situations and sayings and ecinie boxing finish.

The great Tokio Murati wire walker and foot juggler will also be here and for a first class Jap in his line he is a wonder.

Miss Coleman will sing in her usual pleasing manner "Clover Blossoms" beautifully illustrated. The cameograph moving pictures will conclude this excellent bill with the Clown's Revenge, and Oh, That Limburger.

This is another of the banner shows of the season and should be seen to be appreciated.

Manager Perry announces to his patrons that for this evening he has secured an extraord nary attraction, the Grace Cameron Opera company, including a cast and chorus of sixty people, headed by the Broadway favorite, Grace Cameron, and which will make its appearance here with all its wealth of electrieal and scenic splendor.

The company is a large and notable one, moluding such names as Al Lawrence, the celebrated mimie; who has lately been the hit of the Sam Houston production and also with Thomas W. Ross in "Cheekers;" Klein, Ott Bros. & Nicholson, a quartette of real musicians, rendering cassical selections on xylophone, thrass quartette, string and many novelty instruments, form one of the added features. Two tons of electrical chime bells, are used with this act, which in other strong, feature for his bill self is a feature worthy of the next week commencing Montay attention of our patrons, Mr. Julian Reed, brother of the late Roland class musician. fined sketch, the shoplifters are der a pleasing specialty. also a elever feam, Mr. Cunning- Miss Cameron is well known to ham plays the part of an Irish po- our theatre goers, who have wit-The Albions is a strong up-to-date comedy act entitled "His First Lesson" replete with very and other notable successes.

THE CHURCH CITY QUARTET IN "LITTLE DOLLIE DIMPLES"

anything about your hog; I never saw your hog." Then he went on talking and after little he said. 'Mrs. Berry, that hog's nose don't turn up enough for yours. Yet he says I was hunting and walked about eight miles, and as he was coming across the field he said, "Mrs. Berry, I saw where there was a heg rooting and I think it's yours, and I'll help you to find her, Mrs. Berry, and at the same time the hog had been gone over three months.

We were standing by hog when this conversation came up and the erowd is, if you aren't stringing me."-Boshad all gone over to sell another hog, and he started then and went over to the crowd, and just got over there when they started back to sell this hog. Mr. Schwickendick a wordy argument with a cullud gem-

the straight of it and I can prove

MRS. BERRY.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

L. Wagner, Wholesale Druggist, said and they didn't have any Richmond, Va., says: "I had a fearful attack of Sciatic Rheumatism. That same evening he came down was laid up almost two months; was

The Cate's Band is the strong Reed, will appear in a comedy role, of the best in vaudeville. Every dancer, Miss Phoebe Cardownie, member of the family is a high one of the unique and novel features of the performance. The Church Cunningham and Smith in a re- City Ma'e Quartette will also renliceran to perfection and does some astounding acrobatic work. Bestonians, "Foxy Quiller," "The He is well assisted by Miss Smith. Tenderfoot," "When Johnny Comes Strung. "Do you see that man walking slowly, his eyes scanning the ground or glancing at every woman as she steps out or into her carriage?" queried a Fifth avenue habitue of the transient Bostonian. "Sure," was the Bostonese reply. "What about him?" 'Nothing," only he's hunting for vanshing jewels careless people drop in the gutter, or on the sidewalk. Plenty of business for him. Half New York loses its valuables that way every day. That chap knows it, too. No doubt he'll light on a 'find' before the night's over." "A sort of diamond scavenger," said the Bostonian, "that Neither Time Nor Money to Waste. An undersized son of Erin got int men of herculean stature on the rear platform of a street car. Blows fol lowed. Meanwhile, the car arrived at the negro's street, and as he go off he yelled, "Git off'n dat kyar, you mick, en show what's yo' made uv on de groun'!" Pat, in a hurry to get home to his wife and childer, and probably not caring to pay another fare, cried out: "Sure, an' there's not a single parth of yez wur-rth a nickel!" The passengers roared, and the car groped its weary way along.

Hard to Remember. "She's pretty, but she doesn't look as if she had sense enough to know her own name." "She doesn't, half the time. You ree she's just been married to a Polish nobleman."

The Calamities That Do Not Happen Lord Beaconsfield once said that the worst evil one has to endure is the anticipations of the calamities that do not happen.

ofound—and just as impressive.

Makes Our Own Troubles. Whom can we accuse but ourselves for what we suffer?--Massinger.

Analysis of Fraud.

Fraud is the recourse of weakness and cunning.-Gibbon. The Same With Bad Habits. Better one thorn plucked out than all remain.-Hovace.

At very low prices. Se yourself against loss or accident or sickne

Insurance

MILLS & BROW

We Sell Accident

Farmers' Sale Notes. This bank gives special attention to the collection of sale notes, making a small charge for collection. When well secured we buy outright, or accept them as security for loans. Blank sale notes furnished free of charge. Your business no matter how large of small will receive careful attention.

THE MARION COUNTY BANK CO. CAPITAL $250,000.00 SURPLUS $55,000.00 Geo. D. Copeland, Vice Pres. W. H. Schaffner, Cashier. C. C. Fisher, Vice Pres. C. D. Schaffner, Ass't Cash.

DIRECTORS Henry A. True G. B. Christian, Sr. C. C. Fisher H. Ackerman G. D. Copeland, J. G. Leffler, W. H. Schaffner, W. B. Fisher

THE STATE OF THE S City National Bank.

Cor. Main and Center Sts. CAPITAL STOCK $100,000 Surplus and Undivided Profits, $28,000.

I. A. Merchant, President. D. H. Lincoln, Cashier. D. R. Crissinger, Vice President. J. H. Wetmore, Amt. Cashier, A share of your banking business solicited.

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent. Interest paid on Deposits. DIRECTORS: Isaac A. Merchant.

F. A. Huber, D. R. Crissinger. Jas. B. Guthery, John D. Owens, Dr. C. E. Cawyer. Busby P. Sweney, Chas. H. McElvy. Geo. W. King, Geo. E. Salmon, A. E. Cheney. E. Browne, Dan Evans.

Here is a Cozy House

and the second s

In our office we have plans of many houses ranging in price from $700 to $10,000. If we have not got just what you want, we will be glad to offer any suggestion and help you plan your house, together with specifications, which weguarantee to work out perfectly.

We are erecting large sheds on our lots, recently purchased, on Wilson avenue, on Big Four siding, and will not be delayed by not having materials of all kinds on hand.

ANOTHER BIG ITEM.

We buy all our material outside of Marion, direct from big mills not in the "combine." Employ good mechanics and personally supervise all our work, enabling us to quote lowest figures and best materials.

SOUTH SIDE BUILDING SUPPLY CO.

Office 112 Court St.

New Phone 1521

Most Women

Can bake good bread if they use proper care and have

Harter's/A-No. I Flour

has been in the lead for many years and it's there to stay. Don't be talked into using some brand of flour that is not reliable. You pay your own money for it and you may as well use the best. Any grocer sells it. We are wholesale distributors for Marion.

Mozier & Rhoads

Coal and Feed.